

My Intention, Prayer Request, or Concern

Group A

- For my daughter to step into the fullness of the love of God for her.
- For refugees and migrants worldwide.
- My friend Mercedes
- My sisters Anna & Liz
- Our country and the divisions we have
- Being able to truly hear each other and have it matter
- Those experiencing homelessness
- The immigrant children and their families
- Believers to grow closer to God and walk it out every day
- Non-believers seeking God
- My grandson Corey who has inoperable tumors in his lungs
- Three friends whose kidneys are in different stages of failure
- A deeper walk with God
- Jobs and people to work those jobs
- To work on silencing my mind and centering within.
- Grace to depart with open hearts for George and Kay as they remember and honor the past while move into a whole new future.

Group B

- To remember I am part of the circle of life and all that surrounds me as I walk.
- That we may all find the strength, courage and guidance from the Holy Spirit to spread the Good News of the Gospel, and how we have been redeemed by our Lord Jesus Christ.
- Healing and encouragement for Judy as she endures severe effects of truncal lymphedema. Her faith is strong.
- Spiritual healing for Peter as he struggles with continued anger over the loss of both parents at an early age, and his critical health issues that began at birth.
- Healing from the pain in Bob's feet that prevents walking for a very long distance and is always painful.
- Healing and Unity
- Intention is for our little congregation in Truchas to be renewed and to find new ways to serve our town.
- For immigrants at the border, especially unaccompanied children
- For common sense and caution as churches reopen
- For strength and stamina as my Mom recovers from complications after a hip replacement
- For peace and wellbeing for all who are transitioning from lives of solitude into a lives of community
- Pray that God will clearly direct me as to whether or not to volunteer for Vacation Bible School in July!
- May the Spirit move us to true unity for the care of the earth our mother and all our brothers and sisters, standing silent nations, four-legged, two-legged, winged, creepy crawlers, swimmers , even the microbes that nourish the micro-environments of our bodies and the soil.
- May we all be one in Spirit and in Truth.
- God guide our police, and give wisdom to us on how to guide them!
- Blessings on the beginning of an interim pastor, the Rev. Judy Wellington, at La Mesa Presbyterian Church

Group C

- Let the COVID-19 vaccine for 12 to 15 yr-olds be distributed quickly.
- Help us to be generous in the pandemic, from family-to-family to nation-to-nation.
- In 2021, there has been on average 10 mass shootings each week. Forgive and remove our violent natures.
- "All that's left in Honduras is misery."
- Relieve the drought emergency in 41 California counties.
- Give peace and freedom to each unharmed, gentle, soul misplaced inside a jail.
- Immigrant communities
- Hunger in Albuquerque and surrounding areas
- Those grieving COVID losses - of people, work, and other
- Hospice patients
- Finding a clear path forward in Spiritual, business, volunteering options
- Health resolutions
- For all Christians to love their sisters and brothers so that strife among them may be lessened around the world.
- Pray that all peoples of all faiths that they may see each other as deserving of respect and dignity so that all may work toward a peaceful existence.
- Those who have died from COVID, their family and friends, those who had the virus and recovered but still have side effects, and those who refuse to be vaccinated. Protect us O God.
- Gratitude for the first 35 years of witness of the Rio Rancho Presbyterian Church and hope for the next 35 years

Group D

- For countries in conflict and the people who are not standing silent but speaking up and out for our sisters and brothers in need.
- For the earth, her breath is our life giving breath, so May choices be made daily to allow God's breath.
- For those who have no one to pray for them. May God's embrace give them peace and comfort.
- Thanks for answered prayers from our past Pilgrimages.
- For new families, their unity and peace.
- For those that have passed away this season and those who grieve their passing, for Bobby, Pedro, and Angie (so many others...).
- For a renewed grace of Unity in our homes, places of work and worship, and our communities.
- For the Archdiocese of Santa Fe, hope and healing.
- For all those expecting children and those hoping to have children.
- For all those participating in the Unity Pilgrimage for safe journeys, answered prayers and a powerful outpouring of the Holy Spirit.
- For all our ministers, may the Feast of Pentecost be a renewed outpouring of the Holy Spirit to bless and guide their work in the Body of Christ.
- A small group from our church will walk to pray for the movement of the Spirit in our lives, our church, and in our community, and to reflect on ways we may be called to share the hope of the Spirit with those around us.
- A church in Lexington, KY, has experienced the blessing of tremendous growth in diversity and requests prayer for the gift of unity in diversity, for patience as the gift unfolds, and for hope and perseverance in the journey.
- Heavenly Father have mercy upon your children who suffer from addictions, that their lives might once again turn to you and give glory to Christ their healer and Savior.
- Open our hearts and minds and hearts that we may not judge the afflicted but offer understanding and guidance.
- Healing for Molly recent back injury

Group E

- For justice in the Middle East, especially between Israel and Palestine and all nations who contributed to the discord.
- For an educational system in Memphis that ensures education equity for all students.
- Relief from pain for Sandra
- Endurance during treatments for Ruth
- Encouragement for families care for one another: Marie and Rick; Karmen, Gabe and John; Joyce and her adult children; Joe, Priscilla, Lena and Tina
- Bev's sister and niece with COVID, not bad cases just always tired.
- Graduates from High School, College and those earning advanced degrees: may the future be open for their dreams.
- Gratitude for healing of Jim's friend who almost died with COVID
- Thankful for the blessing of birthday cards received by Florida who is elderly, blind and lives with her daughter; may all our elders be remembered and celebrated
- Guidance for the doctors overseeing Kate's multiple limitations that the right drugs might assist in her healing.
- Comfort for Stephen Daniels as he faces his death; gratitude for his ministry at the Peñasco Presbyterian church, support for those who love him and continued peace in his soul.
- Healing for Dora's son Rick with a skin infection on his legs.
- Gratitude that Nancy and Toby's son, limited by a brain injury, who is becoming a teacher in his assisted living residence; may all individuals whose lives have been limited in accidents be appreciated and find a way to contribute.
- Guidance for the medical professionals working with Frances; that his vision problems may be corrected; he subsequent surgeries be successful and that he fully recover from his medical crisis of earlier this year.
- Encouragement and a clear path forward for Ray as he faces several medical challenges; strength for his wife, Judy, who is his faithful support.
- Pray that a spirit of comfort and compassion surround the Laguna Presbyterian Church as they resume worship on Pentecost, mourn the COVID losses experienced, bid farewell to their moderator and prepare to welcome a new leader.